Membership as an Affiliate Member, MAP Attorney Member, or Creditors International Member confers upon its representative those same voting rights afforded all regular classes of members. An Affiliate Member representative, MAP Attorney Member, or Creditors International member representative may serve as a MACA Board of Director provided that the representative is so nominated and elected by a majority of those in attendance at the Annual General Membership Meeting, or is appointed by the President to an existing vacancy. However, only one board seat annually may be held from Affiliate, MAP Attorney, or Creditors International categories of membership. Affiliate Member representatives, MAP Attorney members, and Creditors International Members are not eligible to serve as an ACA Director or Unit Officer.

This firm herein makes application for membership in the Mid-Atlantic Collectors Association. If accepted, we agree to subscribe to the Association's Bylaws, to advance the interests of the Association and to generally promote the welfare of the industry. We understand that membership is not transferable.
